KÆRE MEDLEM

Her få dage før SMWS Festival 2020 går i gang, har jeg hermed fornøjelsen af at præsentere dig for februar måneds Outturn. Outturnet vil være tilgængeligt den 30. januar på casual day i Vejle, og vil desuden have en særskilt plads på en af standene under Festivalen fredag og lørdag.

Vi kan i år tilbyde en lækker Festival flaske i form af en let røget/sherry præget whisky fra destilleri nummer 10. Der blev 261 flasker af aftapningen som du kan læse mere om på de næste sider, og de sælges under hele Festivalen fra om torsdagen indtil der ikke er flere. Vi sælger max 1 flaske per medlem.

Hvis du læser Outturnet nøje, vil du sikkert også bemærke at 33.138 er at finde blandt de udvalgte flasker. Da vi ved at disse aftapninger er meget populære, har vi valgt at gøre det sådan, at en del af flaskerne er allokeret til selve messen under Festivalen. Dermed vil alle have mulighed for at kunne smage den. De resterende flasker vil blive solgt via lodtrækning. Torsdag, fredag og lørdag trækker vi lod blandt de tilstedeværende, der så vil blive tilbudt at kunne købe en flaske. Vinder man, og ønsker man ikke at gøre brug af muligheden, trækker vi naturligvis blot et andet navn. Vi håber at I er enige i at denne model er den mest retfærdige.

Der er i øvrigt stadig få billetter tilbage til Festivalens smagninger, så leder du efter en lille perle at forsøge dig selv med, så kan jeg anbefale at kaste et blik på fredags smagningen med de allerførste aftapninger fra destilleri 125. Er du mere til det knapt så klassiske, og har lyst til at udfordre dig selv og dine sanser, så kunne det eventuelt være en ide at kaste dig ud i whisky & sound – en anderledes smagning hvor de dygtige kunstnere sætter lyd til smagsoplevelserne.

Med disse ord vil jeg gerne ønske alle en rigtig god Festival, og tak fordi I hver især bidrager til den gode stemning. Til alle jer der går glip af Festivalen i år, vil jeg sige på gensyn til marts/april, hvor vi igen kommer rundt i landet til casual days.

Med venlig hilsen
Thomas Korsgaard

On the nose, confectionary sweetness (marshmallow, jelly beans, coconut mushrooms, vanilla) compliments cherry pie, baked peach, ripe plum and subtle notes of curry leaf, balsa and polished furniture. The palate is sweet, tart and fruity (passion-fruit, lychee, Satsuma, lemon and lime); the finish dry and dusty, hinting at delicate wood and gentle spice. The reduced nose introduces flower meadows and orchards, but also becomes creamier – milk chews, coconut milk and cream-filled meringues. The palate is sweet and balanced – crystallised flowers, Parma violets, creamy porridge and crème brûlée, with a tart, tongue-tingling finish of orange peel, cherries, grapefruit and perfumed wood.

We were fermenting strawberries with vanilla beans, orange peel, almond extract, fresh mint leaves and not to forget plenty (and we mean plenty!) of Spanish-style rum from the likes of Panama or Venezuela. On the palate neat, simple but delicious like moist banana bread drizzled with a warm salted caramel sauce. We were careful when adding water but wow! Imagine sitting in a mahogany and cane deck-chair on the porch of a plantation house listening to the relaxing evening chorus of the whistling frogs. After 36 years in an ex-bourbon hogshead we transferred this whisky into a 2nd fill toasted oak hogshead.

OUTTURN DK	30 bottles

Initially the nose is sooty and coastal in a very classical sense. Then abundant citrus with fresh limes and lemons followed by some autolytic, yeasty characteristics, preserved lemons, soft tarry notes, salted butter, samphire, amber malt, beach pebbles, sunflower oil and gorse with a scatter of mixed dried herbs. Reduction unleashes the fruit with dried papaya, green banana, cough syrups, lemon balm, prune eau de vie, orange jelly, cantaloupe melon, salted caramel and kiwi. The palate brings a spice-infused waxy texture with paprika, chilli, spiced custard, sultanas, plum wine, rancio, lemon jelly, juniper twigs and sea breeze. Water brings out sweet grist, turmeric, Caledonian ice cream, bracken, bone dry blanc du blanc Champagne, mineral oil, cereals, breads and fruit salad.

DESSERT TRIPTYCH : HESSIAN MERINGUE

OUTTURN DK	24 bottles

A gentle and inviting nose of crushed monkey nuts, cocoa powder, fruit and nut chocolate bars and emulsion paint. Underneath there's sweet notes of aged Sauternes, some raisiny old armagnac, dark chocolate and damp earth dusted with cinnamon and wheat beer. Reduction gives Tunnock's tea cakes, Chinese five spice, boozy morello cherries and dried apricots. The palate opens with smouldering incense, pine resin, petrichor and smoky paprika. There's treacle toffee, old style oloroso, cloves, cinnamon swirls, prune juice and malt extract. Water brings an appetising warmth, lots of sweeter sherry notes, sootiness, ginger and carrot cake, peanut brittle and a zing of sherry vinegar. Complex, intricate and compelling stuff!

SEARED SCALLOPS BY THE SEASHORE

DEEP, RICH & DRIED FRUITS

OUTTURN DK	261 bottles

The nose weaves strands of hessian (old-fashioned tattie sack) and dry wood with sugar-coated fennel seeds, chicory coffee and wooden cigarette boxes; there is also a hint of seared scallops by the seashore. The palate is quite dry, woody and ashy, with burnt twigs, Victory V's, Liquorice Allsorts, Oddfellows (cinnamon, ginger and clove) and treacle scones. With water, the nose gets dried seaweed, some cereal notes and honey-roasted pork. The palate finds beach bonfire hickory smoke and ash, dark chocolate, walnut oil and dried dates. After 9 years in ex-bourbon wood we transferred this into a PX hoggie.

MUSCLE-TONED HEFT AND PUNCH

DEEP, RICH & DRIED FRUITS

OUTTURN DK	30 bottles

The nose had muscle-toned sherry robustness - prune juice, cinder toffee, treacle tart, dried figs, raisins and sweet wine and molasses cake from Madeira. The penetrating palate offered treacle toffee, Liquorice Allsorts and Eccles cakes; tar, cassis, intense mocha and hints of mushroom risotto umami. Water emphasised fruit on the nose - roasted peach (with brown sugar), dried apricot and flambeed banana - also toasted coconut, nut brittle and sea-salt and caramel dark chocolate, with woody nutmeg and cinnamon spice haunting the finish. The palate, now sweet and chewy, had coconut and chocolate (Macaroon bars) with balancing espresso, prune and mature oak lending heft and punch.

PIRATE SHIP IN A STORM

DEEP, RICH & DRIED FRUITS

OUTTURN DK	36 bottles

Barrels of rich fruits and sweet spice rolled from the glass like a shipment of rum and raisin ice cream on a storm-torn pirate ship. Nutmeg and cloves united with Brazil nuts, dates and prune juice to create a succulent storm that rained down a torrent of mulled wine and onion gravy. Then fudge, butterscotch and banana bread delivered rich and sweet flavours that cascaded into coffee, orange and truffle oil. With water, pine forests appeared with almonds and walnuts that sweetened into marzipan. Burnt notes of soft brown sugar and singed sultanas married with calvados before ginger and blackcurrants appeared. Finally, maple syrup balanced a finish that was dominated by pumpkin seeds, bitter chocolate and dry tree bark.

The nose started with fresh laundry flapping over a chamomile lawn, then banana toffee, butterscotch, Crunchie bars and apricot flan; finally reaching sawdust and polished wood. The palate was as intense as a trumpet blast in a barrel “spiced pumpkin pie, barbecued banana rolled in cinnamon and muscovado, toasted coconut and vanilla; the finish tingled with coffee, rolling tobacco and oak. The reduced nose released more coffee and mocha notes “also fig yoghurt, berry compote, Toffifee and sawmills. The palate continued its tongue-tingling intensity “but the dark brown sugar, toffee, gingerbread and honeyed oak combined to create a beautifully balanced harmony.

A light, airy and carefree summery flair exuded from the glass: aromas of fresh vanilla, cinnamon, wild flowers on the machair and herbes de Provence transported us to a variety of places. The taste had it all - delicately balanced with a sweet start, an herbaceous middle and a salty finish. Water added fresh seaweed washed onto a pebble beach and honey lemon menthol flavoured lozenges, whilst on the palate it was described as ‘as clean as a whistle’. Edible white viola flowers and a white marzipan loaf with finely grounded almonds mixed with natural sugar and rose water – an irresistible composition!

Nose - brandy snaps, cafe noir biscuits, dark toffee, Oddfellow sweets, liquorice, treacle, molasses and crispy mackerel skin grilled over peat. Palate - visceral sweet smoke, burnt twigs, raisins, dark chocolate and Lapsang Souchong - a mouth-filling, lip-smacking, cockle-warming, thigh-slapping dram. The nose turns sweeter with water - maple syrup and brown sugar - but there's a coal-fire in a wood-panelled room or a bucket and spade on the beach by a tarry driftwood bonfire. Now the palate balances maple candies, treacle toffee and sugar-coated fennel seeds with pipe dottles, medicinal notes and tying leather thongs with your teeth - you can provide the back story!

Initially a real whiff of salty and briny aromas like well-used pots and creels alongside fresh seaweed before the sweeter scent of burnt incense took centre stage. Intensely sweet on the palate neat with a hint of peat smoked scallops on salted buttered rye bread as well as refreshing kiwi-lime ice lollies. With water like a zesty, sweet and spicy Asian-style marinade with ginger, chillies and a tamari using citrus, vinegar and Lapsang Souchong tea leaves. The taste offered now plenty of fruits - mango, pineapple and papaya all sweet smoke infused – imagine a pagoda-style kiln chimney smoking in the tropics.

An abundance of salted peanuts, burning heather, evo-stik, frying pancetta, sweet peat, lemon barley water, smoky wort, German rauchbier and mutton. A big, hefty farmy quality dominates the whole thing. Hints of green chartreuse and lavender oil in the background. Water only magnifies these farmyard notes and brings out root beer, coal scuttles, BBQ char, smoky bacon crisps, game meats, baking soda and biltong. The palate is a big slick of engine oil, old tool boxes, new glove compartments, beechwood smoke, moor fires, raw peat, iodine and antiseptic. There's further wee touches of camphor, smoked beeswax and putty as well. With water there are lighter notes such as tarragon, smoked almonds, salted cashews, sardine oil, old rope, kippers, cough mixtures, buttered burned toast, charred lemon and lots of of leathery heat.

We first noticed the deep red mahogany colour and then we sniffed wood glue followed by an abundance of further ester aromas like peaches, apples, pineapples, pear drops and desiccated coconut – smiling faces all round. Smouldering heat on the palate combined with strawberry jam and whipped cinnamon cream and a mouth-drying finish made this an experience to be savoured. With water, saffron crème brûlée with poached pears in spiced brown sugar and plenty of polished oak on the nose, whilst to taste - charred pineapple margarita with sage and a 'blooming' hibiscus flower in syrup at the bottom of a flute filled with Champagne – the stuff that dreams are made of!
